

M.A. 3rd SEMESTER EXAMINATION, 2021 (CBCS)

Subject: Political Science

Paper: MAPOL-304 (Major Elective)

Time: 2 Hours

Full Marks: 40

*The figures in the margin indicate full marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words
as far as practicable.*

Answer question No. 5 and any two from the rest.

1. Discuss fully the meaning and barriers of people's participation. (10)
2. Discuss the meaning and types of accountability in governance. (10)
3. Do you think that citizen's charter ensures transparency in governance? Give reasons in support of your answer. (10)
4. Make a critical appraisal of the poverty alleviation policies in India. (10)

5. Answer any four of the following questions: 5x4=20

- a) Identify two modes of people's participation in administration in India.
- b) Write a short note on the PPP model.
- c) What do you mean by transparency?
- d) What do you mean by social audit?
- e) Write a short note on the functions of CVC.
- f) Write a short note on the constitutional significance of Lokpal.
- g) What is green governance?
- h) Identify the major functions of the CBI.

M.A. 3rd SEESTER EXAMINATION, 2021 (2019-21) (CBCS)

Subject: Political Science

Paper: MAPOL-305 (Major Elective)

Time: 2 Hours

Full Marks: 40

*The figures in the margin indicate full marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words
as far as practicable.*

Answer question No. 5 and any two from the rest.

1. Explain the major aspects of Rajni Kothari's approach to Indian politics. (10)
2. Point out how best to make a scientific study of state politics in India. (10)
3. Point out the various phases of Tamil ethno-linguistic movement in India. (10)
4. Critically identify the factors responsible for the rise of the 'Bhindranwale Cult' in Punjab in the 1980s. (10)

5. Answer any four of the following questions:

5X4=20

- a. Briefly explain the factors that enhances state capacity to govern in India.
- b. What does Partha Chatterjee mean by 'political society'?
- c. What, according to Sudipta Kaviraj, is the problematic of democracy in post-colonial India?
- d. Write a short note on the study of state politics in post-reform India.
- e. What was the so-called Non-Brahmin Manifesto?
- f. Briefly explain J. L. Nehru's approach to the tribals in the North East?
- g. How does Sanjib Baruah distinguish between 'denizens' and 'citizens'?
- h. Point out the salient features of the 6th Schedule of the Indian Constitution.

M.A. 3rd SEMESTER EXAMINATION, 2021 (CBCS)

Subject: Political Science

Paper: MAPOL-306 (Major Elective)

Time: 2 Hours

Full Marks: 40

*The figures in the margin indicate full marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words
as far as practicable.*

Answer question No. 5 and any two from the rest.

1. Analyze the International determinants of India's foreign policy. (10)
2. Discuss India's nuclear policy. (10)
3. Critically analyze the Sino-Indian relations. (10)
4. Discuss Indo-Pakistan relations in the post Cold War period. (10)

5. Answer any four of the following questions: 5x4=20

- a. Mention two domestic determinants of India's foreign policy.
- b. Write a short note on Indo-United States' relations in the post 9/11 period.
- c. Mention, in brief, Indo-Bangladesh relations in the 1970s.
- d. Write a brief note on the border dispute between India and China.
- e. Write a short note on India's national security environment.
- f. Write a short note on India's economic policy.
- g. Write a brief note on India's foreign relations with Bhutan.
- h. Write a brief note on India's foreign relations with Nepal.